

[Correspondence of the Whig & Coalier]
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29, 1839.

The rest of this day was past in Committee of the Whole on the usual Appropriation bills. Mr. Linn Banks, (who is to be the Van Buren candidate for the next Speakership of the House,) in the Chair.

Yours truly, &c.

By the Orleans Courier of the 17th inst. it appears that an express had arrived from the Honorable House, who he said to be Mr.
Grove, &c. was not yet in putting clean Russia over and his return.

The Eastern, Waldo, Penobscot, Piscataquis, Hancock and Washington. For the Eastern District two Judges are to be appointed, and one in each of the others.

All matters pending in the Court of Common Pleas, are to be acted upon in the District Court. And any party aggrieved in any matter of law in the District Court, may allege exceptions, and carry the same into the Supreme Court.

By the way, I would inquire when the Postmaster nominated last November, by his democratic brethren, will assume the duties of his office? And whether the aspirants have been able to settle among themselves which is to be County Attorney, and who is the fortunate one?

age of the Jew, the gratitude I read the reason unanimously adopted, nominating me, as candidate for the Presidency of the United States. This is the second time that I have received from that patriotic party, of which you yourself are a distinguished member, the highest evidence of confidence than can be given to a citizen of our Republic. I could attempt to describe my sense of the obligations I owe them, but I am not convinced that any language which could be uttered, would fall far short of what I actually feel. If, however, the wishes of the Constitution should be realized, and I should attend to my duties, I shall have in my power to express my gratitude to a manner more acceptable than when I could do so by any present means. I wish to repeat at this time my thanks by availing myself of the opportunity to reiterate the principles I wish to see carried into effect in their relations to each other, and to the progress of the great Republic to the prosperity of the people. I wish to call to the observation of all, the rights and duties of the citizen, and the sacredness of the laws.

Processes hereby made and received in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the 2nd of March 1895.

I have been thinking of you very much lately, and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I will try to write to you more often.
 I am, my dear, your affectionate friend, MARY.
